2017 QUILT CATEGORIES

DEFINITIONS

SOLO means ONE person is responsible for the entire quilt, both construction and quilting.

DUET means the quilt was made by TWO people. A quilt is pieced by one person and quilted by another falls into this category. If you paid someone to quilt your quilt top it is a DUET.

APPLIQUE - Most of the quilt is constructed by attaching pieces of fabric to a background by hand or machine.

PIECED - Quilts constructed by sewing fabric pieces together by hand or machine.

MIXED TECHNIQUE - Quilt top is made using multiple techniques which may include, but not limited to, yo-yos, red work, embroidery, paper piecing, cathedral windows, crazy quilts.

MINIATURE - a miniaturized version of a quilt. No block should be larger than four (4) inches square, and no side of the quilt may be larger than 24 inches.

GROUP/FRIENDSHIP - Quilt made by THREE OR MORE people. For example, exchange quilts, round robins, retreat blocks. row by row. All sizes and techniques included here.

ART QUILT - An ORIGINAL design

KIT - A quilt made from a kit such as a preprinted whole cloth, panels, or block of the month

BEGINNER/FIRST TIME EXHIBITOR - This category is for any quilter who is a novice quilter. Any size or technique may go into this category. The choice can be made to enter this quilt in another category-- does not have to be entered here.

NOT A QUILT - Quilted items that are not actually quilts...such as table runners, placemats, garments, bags, pillows, etc.
